

Types of Funds

Community Fund

Ideal for donors who want the assurance that the funds they've established will always be used to meet pressing community needs and improve the quality of life in Calgary. Donors place no restrictions on the use of the funds and entrust TCF with the task of identifying community priorities and the charitable organizations best able to meet them.

Field-of-interest Fund

Allow donors to direct their charitable giving to a general area of interest. TCF makes grants to the charitable organizations best able to meet needs in the chosen field.

Designated Fund

Established by donors to support specific charitable organizations in perpetuity. If a designated organization ceases to exist, the income from the fund is redirected to an organization with a similar mission.

Donor-Advised Fund

Allow for donors' involvement in recommending charitable organizations to receive grants from fund they've established.

Memorial Fund

Created to commemorate a person, family or important event, these funds can be established as any type of TCF endowment fund.

Charitable Organization Fund

Designated funds established by charitable organizations as permanently endowed funds within TCF. The fund provides them with an additional source of annual income, which is added to sums raised annually through other means such as fund-raising campaigns. Donors may contribute to such funds through TCF or by contacting the organization directly.

Managed Fund

A charitable organization or foundation entrusts TCF with the long-term management of its endowment fund while retaining ownership of the fund.

Student Award - TCF Administered

A recipient is selected by the donor's selection committee. Upon proof of registration, the Award is made to the post-secondary institution the student is attending.

Student Award - Designated

A Student Award grant is made to the post-secondary institution after they have selected and informed The Calgary Foundation of the recipient.
